PRAYER TO THE HOLY FAMILY

O God, who were pleased to give us the shining example of the Holy Family, graciously grant that we may imitate them in practicing the virtues of family life and in the bonds of charity, and so, in the joy of your house, delight one day in eternal rewards. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

WHERE WE LIVE, SERVE, & WALK TOGETHER IN FAITH.

WHAT’S IN YOUR HEART?

On the roll call of virtues God’s chosen ones should practice, the Letter to the Colossians lists “bearing with one another”—it’s along the lines of “you shall love your neighbor as yourself.” In daily life “bearing with” can mean “putting up with” or “tolerating” or “carrying one another’s burdens.” Either way:

- The next time you encounter something or someone inconveniencing or annoying you, remember the occasions when you needed to “be put up with.”

- Think of situations when someone stepped in to help you. Remember that experience when you have a chance to assist another when they’re weak.
FROM THE PASTOR

My Dear Parish Family,

Most of the time, when I address this weekly letter, it is to you my ‘parish family.’ Sometimes it’s ‘brothers and sisters in Christ,’ and other times it’s ‘my dear parishioners.’ However, the one I use today is the one that best suits what I feel when I think of all of you…my family. With God as our Father, Mary as our Mother and Jesus as our brother, I think we have a pretty good family. Personally, I came from a family of six: mom, dad, older sister, Cindy and younger brothers, John and Roger. On this Feast of the Holy Family, we are reminded that all of us and our families are called to be holy, as well. We all know that none of our families is perfect, but we are still called to be the best we can be. So, to that end, I offer the following advice:

HERE are seven ways parents can teach their children to know God and cultivate a “holy family.”

1. God is love. God as love will only begin to make sense to our children when they experience loving and being loved in their daily lives. 2. Through prayer. Help your children know and acknowledge their true feelings, because we pray best when we pray honestly from the heart. 3. In service to others. Children have a natural sense of justice that can be used to help them learn compassion and thus deepen their relationship with God through serving those around them. 4. In scripture. Make it a habit to discuss the scripture readings before or after Mass. 5. In nature. Some children learn best experientially, which often means being out in nature and experiencing up close the glory of God’s handiwork. 6. God is on your side. It’s important for our children to know that God is their greatest ally in discovering their true path in life and achieving the good through their unique gifts. 7. God forgives. Give your children a taste of God’s forgiveness by raising them in a home where both accountability and forgiveness flow freely.

God bless you all and may your New Year’s Eve celebrations be safe, healthy and happy!

Fr. Scott

A Note of Thanks from Social Concerns

As we draw near to the end of another year, allow me to take a brief moment of your time to give thanks and praise to the many hard working members of St. Joseph’s Social Concerns Ministry who have given so freely and happily of their time and energy to keep our Food Pantry, Sunday Suppers, Clothing Drives and Christmas Giving Tree operating smoothly. They are always meeting the needs of others with a warm smile and gentle words.

Thank you to each of our many wonderful parishioners, faculty, staff and students at St. Joseph’s Grade School and Donovan Catholic High School, who throughout the year have shown us such steadfast caring and sharing by donating mountainous amounts of food and clothing for those who have encountered more bumps than others.

Lastly, but certainly not least, a huge thank you to our Pastor Father Scott and to Fr. Carlos and Fr. Jerome, as well as the entire staff of St. Joseph’s for their assistance, encouragement and understanding when things may have become a little less than quiet and slightly off center.

May you all be blessed as you have blessed so many others.

MENSAJE DEL PASTOR

Querida Familia Parroquial,

En mis cartas, semanalmente yo me dirijo a ustedes de diferentes maneras, pero esta semana elegí dirigirme a ustedes como “mi familia parroquial”, pues es la mejor manera de expresar lo que siento cuando pienso en ustedes…mi familia. Con Dios como Padre, María como Madre y Jesús como hermano, tenemos una familia muy buena.

En esta Fiesta de la Sagrada Familia, debemos recordar que todos nosotros y nuestras familias estamos llamados a la santidad. Sabemos que ninguna familia es perfecta, pero no obstante estamos llamados a esforzarnos a hacer, lo mejor que cada uno de nosotros puede hacer. Con este fin, les ofrezco los siguientes consejos:

Aquí hay 7 maneras que los padres pueden enseñar a sus hijos a conocer a Dios y cultivar una “Familia Santa”.

1. Dios es amor. El amor de Dios comienza a tener sentido en la vida de los niños cuando lo experimentan en su vida cotidiana. 2. Atraves de la oración. Ayuden a sus hijos a conocer y aceptar sus sentimientos, porque a través de una oración honesta, es que pueden reconocer sus verdaderos sentimientos. 3. En servicio a otros. Los niños tienen un sentido natural de justicia, el cual como padres pueden utilizar para enseñarles compasión y ayudarlos a profundizar su relación con Dios, a través del servicio comunitario. 4. En las escrituras. Inicia un hábito en tu casa de conversar antes o después de misa acerca de las escrituras. 5. En la naturaleza. Algunos niños aprenden mejor por experiencia, en estar afuera al aire libre experimentando la naturaleza, la creación de Dios. 6. Dios está de nuestra parte. Es importante que los niños conozcan a Dios como su más cercano aliado quien los ayuda a descubrir el verdadero camino de la vida, y adquirir lo bueno a través de sus propios dones. 7. Dios perdona. Enséñales a tus hijos la misericordia de Dios, criándolos en un ambiente de responsabilidad y perdón.

Que Dios los bendiga a todos y que la celebración de fin de Año sea segura, sana y feliz!

Fr. Scott
